Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

The factual inquiries set forth in Graham v. John Deere Co., 383 U.S. 1, 148 USPQ 459 (1966), that are applied for establishing a background for determining obviousness under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) are summarized as follows:

1. Determining the scope and contents of the prior art.
2. Ascertaining the differences between the prior art and the claims at issue.
3. Resolving the level of ordinary skill in the pertinent art.
4. Considering objective evidence present in the application indicating obviousness or nonobviousness.

This application currently names joint inventors. In considering patentability of the claims under 35 U.S.C. 103(a), the examiner presumes that the subject matter of the various claims was commonly owned at the time any inventions covered therein were made absent any evidence to the contrary. Applicant is advised of the obligation under 37 CFR 1.56 to point out the inventor and invention dates of each claim that was not commonly owned at the time a later invention was made in order for the examiner to consider the applicability of 35 U.S.C. 103(c) and potential 35 U.S.C. 102(e), (f) or (g) prior art under 35 U.S.C. 103(a).

Claims 17-19, 24-33 and 35-36 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over JP 10-30986 or JP 5-320616 in view of JP '904.

Art Unit: 1743

JP '986 and JP '616 teach a fluoran indicator. These references teach the dyes are incorporated into supporting bodies/polymers/articles that have been read on the claimed "binder". JP '986 and JP '616 teach are silent to the claimed "coloring assistant" an the specific compounds.

JP '904 teaches a gas plasma sterilization indicator that minimizes discoloring and fading using a pigment, a discoloring agent and a binder. The taught discoloring agents are a compound having a mercapto or dithiocarbaminic group. JP '904 teaches it is advantageous to minimize discoloring and fading by light to prevent false positive indication that sterilization has occurred.

It would have been within the skill of the art to modify JP '986 or JP '616 in view of JP '904 and use a compound having a mercapto or dithiocarbaminic group to gain the above advantages of minimizing false positive indications. The claimed coloring assistant has been read on the mercapto or dithiocarbaminic group compounds.

The court decided In re Leshin (125 USPQ 416) that selection of a material based upon its suitability of intended use would be entirely obvious. All of the claimed pigments, color assistants, and binders are well known in the art and commercially available. It would have been within the skill of the art to modify JP 11-178904, JP 10-30986 or JP 5-320616 and use well known commercially available pigments, color assistants or binders as the selection of a material based upon its suitability of intended use and would have been obvious here.

Response to Arguments

Art Unit: 1743

Applicant's arguments filed 9/1/04 have been fully considered but they are not persuasive.

In response to applicant's arguments against the references individually, one cannot show nonobviousness by attacking references individually where the rejections are based on combinations of references. See In re Keller, 642 F.2d 413, 208 USPQ 871 (CCPA 1981); In re Merck & Co., 800 F.2d 1091, 231 USPQ 375 (Fed. Cir. 1986).

Allowable Subject Matter

Claims 21-23 are objected to as being dependent upon a rejected base claim, but would be allowable if rewritten in independent form including all of the limitations of the base claim and any intervening claims.

Claims 20 and 34 are allowed.

The following is a statement of reasons for the indication of allowable subject matter: The cited prior art fails to teach or anticipate the use of a polyphenyl compound as a discoloring agent in an indicator composition for plasma sterilization comprising a colorless chromogenic fluoran pigment and a coloring assistant.

Conclusion

Applicant's amendment necessitated the new ground(s) of rejection presented in this Office action. Accordingly, THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. See MPEP § 706.07(a). Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

Art Unit: 1743

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the date of this final action.
